JUSTICE JOHN'S COURT.

The Fratlity of Human Nature Was Exhaustively Exposed on Yesterday.

Justice John ascended the bench at 9:30 yesterday morning, and perched above the hosts of litigants like the American eagle above the shield. There were a great many people present. Many of them had no busi-ness there and a great many of them had no business anywhere else, so they came, and when the sergeant announced the opening of the court there was a pleased expression visible which resembled the face of the congregation when the parson closes the morning discourse.

The eclipse of the moon Sunday evening was a bad thing, for just in that dark hour while Luna hid her face and a multitude of men from their front steps designed to peer behind the veil that shielded from their for-ward gaze that pretty face, the average thief scaled the back, fence and carried off every-thing from the red table cloth on the dining om table to the Thanksgiving-day goose in Sarah Gray was sent to jail for fifteen days for stealing a dress belonging to Mrs. P. H. Sutherland. Giles B. Jackson, the colored orator, seemed resentful of the lead which John Jasper got on him Sunday by preaching his "Sun do Moye" sermon, and he delivered one of his most element descourse in his less. one of his most eloquent discourses in behalf of Sarah. Sarah, he said, had only borrowed the drass to wear on Sunday, as her mistress was confined to her room. Giles repeated the story of the thirty maids and cooks arrested story of the thirty maids and cooks arrested at a bail a few years ago and all found to be arrayed in the dresses of the people whom they served. He stated that no stealing was proven then, and that none could be claimed now. He gave a lovely pyrotechnic description of a woman's love of dress and her insatiable desire for the try. His Hon-r could not appreciate the situation and sent Sarah where one dress will situation and sent Sarah where one dress will last her until she comes out.

RAILBOAD CASES,

Judge B. A. Hancock has just returned from Prince George court, where he tried two cases against the Noriolk and Western railcases against the Noriolk and Western rail-road. In one case a verdiet was given against the railroad for $2,000, and the other case was compromised after the trial commenced. It is understood that a meeting of the Chesterfield and Manchester Agricultural and Mechanical Society will be called for next Saturday, to be held in Leader Hall.

A union meeting of the Sunday schools in and around Midlothian will be held at St. James Methodist church, Midlothian, on the fifth Sunday of this month, Major Robert Stiles and Judge B. A. Hancock have been invited to speak.

Chesterfield Circuit Court met yesterday. Chesterfield Circuit Court met yesterday, Judge B. A. Hancock on the bench. A considerable amount of chancery business was transacted and the common law docket for the session was arranged. The case of Owen against the Richmond and Danville railroad was compromised. Messrs. Hill Carter and Edgar Allan represented the plaintiffs and Mr. Beverly Munford appeared 6 r the railroad company. Several other railroad cases will come up the most important being that of Turpin against the Richmond and Danville railroad. Messrs, Pepioe & Wilson are counsel for the plaintiffs and B. B. Munford for the defendant. This case is set for Friday. The court will not be in session Thursday and will adjourn for the term Monday.

Clopton, the present incumbent. There is certainly no more popular citizen or learned gentleman in this district, and no appointment would give more general satisfaction than to see Judge Clopton replaced in a position he has held so long and with such distinguished ability. This judgeship was held by Judge Clopton from 1873 to 1879. He was then put out by the Malonites. When the Democrats regained power Judge Clopton the Democrats regained power Judge Clopton was at once reinstated and has since isso, filled the position with pronounced credit to himself and entire satisfaction to all who have had occasion to come in connection with his court. He is one of the largest property owners in the county, his real estate being valued at about $35,000. His many friends in the county and this city feel confident of his reappointment.

Mr. Stratton moved to refer the whole matter to the City Attorney and City Engineer for report. The motion was carried.

Mr. J. W. Carter moved that pay be granted to Mr. J. W. Eurnett for thirteen days when he was laid up on account of injuries which he received in an excavation on Governor street. The matter was referred to the City Engineer for rep rt.

A communication was received from Mr. J.

T. Maynard & Son stating the following:

"The appropriation for paying sidewalks

"The appropriation for paving sidewalks being about exhausted, we would like to continue the paving until the contract is again awarded, to be paid for as soon as the next appropriation is made."

Captain Curtis moved that the request be granted. The motion was carried by the following vote:

owing vote:

Curtis, Stratton, White, Capers-6. -Messrs. Bahen, Brauer, Thomas, A petition was presented against the con-struction of a sewer on Federal street, be-tween St. James and St. Peter's streets. A resolution ordering the work had been passed by the Common Council, but the Board of Al-dermen referred the matter to the committee. Turpin-4.

It was decided to report the matter back to the Board with the recommendation to have the work done.

A joint resolution providing that the necessary steps be taken to acquire the piece of land on Broad street, Adams street and Brook avenue was referred back to the Board of Aldermen with the indorsement that the committee deem it unadvisable to acquire the property at this time.

The regular weekly meeting of the Committee The regular weekly meeting of the Connection on Grounds and Buildings was held in the office of the City Engineer last evening. Sub-Chairman Fergusson and Mes-rs. Brander, Curtis, Hardwicke, Houston, Seay and Turpin were present.

The names of John F. Burrough, W. F. Ammons and C. H. Lambert were listed for work on the new City Hall.

on the new City Hall.

Colonel Cutshaw stated the work under progress was in the interior of the City Hall.

He stated that the elevators were now being put in, and that proposals would be adver-tised for towards the end of the month for tised for towards the end of the month for the steam heating and water and gas fixtures. He added that he hurried the work as much as possible, and that he could not employ any additional men. The plastering would be done only in string, and at the same time the wood work would be put in.

Mr. Turpin moved that Captain W. H. Curtis be elected chairman of the committee. He was unanimously elected.

Mr. Seay stated that Mr. Anthony Griffiths, who had been employed by the committee as watchman for the Third market before that watchman for the Third market before that building had been turned over to the city at a salary of $45, had been paid by the commit-tee up to September 1 th. His official capacity as clerk of the market did not begin until September 21st, with which day his salary as September 21st, with which day his salary as clork went into effect.

Mr. Seay therefore asked the committee to appropriate the money necessary to pay Mr. Griffiths for a watchman for the market for the time from September 17th to September 21st. A motion to that effect was granted.

The accommittee then adjusted. The committee then adjourned.
